

Workforce and Remuneration Committee of North East London ICB

TERMS OF REFERENCE

Status	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. The Workforce and Remuneration Committee (“the Committee”) is established by the Integrated Care Board (“the ICB”) as a Committee of the Board of the ICB (“the Board”).2. These Terms of Reference (ToR) set out the membership, remit, responsibilities and reporting arrangements of the Committee and may only be changed with the approval of the Board. Additionally, the membership of the Committee must be approved by the Chair of the Board.3. The Committee and all of its members are bound by the ICB’s Constitution, Standing Orders, Standing Financial Instructions, policies and procedures of the ICB.
Authority	<ol style="list-style-type: none">4. The Committee is authorised by the Board to take all necessary actions to fulfil the remit described within these terms of reference, including obtaining professional (including legal) advice, commissioning reports and creating groups. The Committee will follow the processes described by the Board for commissioning any professional advice. The Committee may establish groups to assist the committee to undertake its functions but it cannot delegate decisions to such groups.5. In reliance on its authority set out at paragraph 4 immediately above, the Committee will establish the ICB People and Culture Group.
Purpose	<ol style="list-style-type: none">6. The Committee is responsible for shaping and approving the ICB’s internal People and Culture Strategy, assuring the implementation of the Integrated Care System People Plan and for Board succession planning. The Committee is responsible for overseeing the delivery of the ICS Workforce Strategy.7. The Committee will receive assurance on the ICB’s Employment Flagship Priority, ensuring that we utilise the ICB’s ability to provide meaningful and positive employment opportunities for local residents.8. The Committee will be responsible for approving the appropriate remuneration and terms of service for the Chief Executive, Executive Directors and other Very Senior Managers, taking into account national agreements and appropriate benchmarking in reaching their determination. In addition, it will make arrangements for the remuneration of employees and members of the ICB’s committees and sub-committees, with the exception of the Chair and Non-Executive Member - see paragraphs 13/14.

Responsibilities of the Committee

People and Culture

9. The Committee will oversee the development and implementation of a People and Culture Strategy for the ICB, assuring the ICB as an employer meets the objectives of the national NHS People Plan and operates within its agreed ICB values. This includes assuring the ICB that it meets its duties within the Equality Act 2010 and its commitment to be an anti-racist ICB and ICS. It also includes assuring the ICB that there are effective arrangements for 'Speaking Up', particularly when considering arrangements for integrated teams and the tackling of health inequalities.
10. The Committee will receive assurance that the ICS is delivering its responsibilities to deliver the ten outcome-based people functions, including receiving an assessment of its readiness, capacity and capability and an update on progress against plans.
11. The Committee will receive regular progress reports on strategy and implementation of the ICB's Employment Flagship Priority, ensuring that the ICB fully utilises its ability to provide meaningful, inclusive and positive employment opportunities for local residents.
12. Determining the ICB's remuneration/pay policy and standard terms and conditions. The Committee shall confirm the ICB's remuneration/pay policy, including adoption of any pay frameworks for all employees, including senior managers/directors (including board members) and non-executive members.
13. Agreeing arrangements for the remuneration of Board Members (other than the Chair, Chief Executive and the non-executive members) in line with ICB remuneration policy and any other relevant policies and any guidance issued by NHS England or other relevant body.
14. Remuneration and terms of appointment for the Chair will be set by NHS England, and remuneration for non-executive members will be set by a separate committee constituted of the Chair, the Chief Executive and three Partner Members ('the Non-Executive Member Remuneration Committee').
15. The Committee's Remuneration duties are as follows:
 - (a) For the Chief Executive (remuneration set by NHSE), Directors and other Very Senior Managers:
 - (i) Determine all aspects of remuneration, including but not limited to salary (including any performance-related elements), bonuses, pensions and other benefits, e.g. cars;
 - (ii) Determine arrangements for the termination of employment and other contractual terms and non-contractual terms;
 - (iii) Consider the establishment of and any changes to (e.g. extension to contracts) posts on Very Senior Manager pay.

- (b) For all employees:
 - (i) Determine the ICB pay policy (including the adoption of pay frameworks such as Agenda for Change);
 - (ii) Oversee contractual arrangements;
 - (iii) Determine the arrangements for termination payments and any special payments following scrutiny of their proper calculation and taking account of such national guidance, as appropriate.
 - (iv) Approval of changes to organisational structures and changes to the establishment which may increase funding requirements or reductions in cost, which may result in redundancies.
 - (v) Approval of any proposed redundancy, severance or settlement costs and payments, where necessary providing this in advance of any authorisation needed from NHS England and the Treasury.

16. Appointment, Appraisal and Board Succession Planning

- (a) The following in relation to Executive Director Appointments will take place on the advice of and with the Chief Executive.
- (b) The Committee will be responsible for selecting and appointing candidates to fill Executive Director vacancies, ensuring that selected candidates meet and continue to meet all eligibility requirements for Executive Directors, as set out in the Constitution. This will not include Non-Executive Member vacancies, this will be overseen by the Non-Executive Member Remuneration Committee.
- (c) Before any appointment is made, evaluate the balance of skills, knowledge and experience on the Board, and, in the light of this evaluation, approve a description of the role and capabilities required for a particular appointment.
- (d) In identifying suitable candidates, the Committee shall ensure effective processes for inclusive talent management processes and use open and inclusive recruitment processes that ensure appointments are made on merit and against objective, non-discriminatory criteria.
- (e) Once appointed, the Committee will be responsible for oversight of the functions relating to effective leadership of the ICB, including reviewing the ICB's succession planning and talent management strategies, receiving the performance reviews for directors/senior managers and providing oversight of appropriate leadership development arrangements; ICB succession planning will also require prior discussion with the ICB Board.

17. Other Strategic Priorities

- a) The Committee will have responsibility for the workforce priority on behalf of the ICS. This will include creating meaningful employment for the local population across north East London. Creating a 'One NEL' workforce across Health and Social Care which contributes to creating a healthy community across NEL and creates a set of working environments in which a diverse and inclusive workforce can work and develop their careers.
- b) The Committee will be responsible for reviewing relevant workforce risks and receiving internal audit reports relating to workforce matters
- c) The Committee should consider how it will ensure the voice of people and communities within all aspects of its work.
- d) Seek assurance in relation to ICB statutory duties in relation to people, such as compliance with employment legislation, including Fit and Proper Person Regulation (FPPR).

Chairing arrangements

- 18. The Committee will be chaired by a Non-Executive Member of the Board, appointed on account of their specific knowledge, skills and experiences making them suitable to chair the Committee.
- 19. The Chair will be responsible for agreeing the agenda and ensuring matters discussed meet the objectives as set out in these terms of reference.
- 20. Committee members may appoint a Vice Chair from its members. If a Chair has a conflict of interest then the Vice Chair or, if necessary, another member of the Committee will be responsible for deciding the appropriate course of action.

Membership

- 21. The Committee members will be appointed by the Board in accordance with the ICB Constitution and the Chair of the ICB will approve the membership of the Committee.
- 22. The Board will appoint no fewer than seven members to the Committee including two non-executive members of the Board, who are not the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee (who may not be a member of this committee), two associate non-executive members and three partner members
- 23. When determining the membership of the Committee, active consideration will be made to diversity and equality.
- 24. No individual should be present during any discussion relating to:

Participants

- (a) any aspect of their own pay.
- (b) any aspect of the pay of others when it has, or could reasonably be perceived to have, an impact on them.

- 25. Only members of the Committee have the right to attend Committee meetings, but the Chair may invite relevant staff to the meeting as necessary in accordance with the business of the Committee. The ICB's most senior People and OD Advisor (the Chief People and Culture Officer) or their nominated deputy will attend meetings of the Committee in order to ensure the Committee has access to appropriate advice.
- 26. Meetings of the Committee may also be attended by the following individuals for all or part of a meeting as and when appropriate:
 - (a) Chief Finance and Performance Officer or their nominated deputy;
 - (b) Chief Executive or their nominated deputy.

Meetings, Quoracy and Decisions

- 29. The Committee will operate in accordance with the ICB's governance framework, as set out in its Constitution and Handbook and wider ICB policies and procedures, except as otherwise provided below:

Scheduling meetings

- 30. The Committee will meet at quarterly and will meet in private. Additional meetings may be convened on an exceptional basis at the discretion of the Chair.
- 31. The Board, Chair or Chief Executive may ask the Committee to convene further meetings to discuss particular issues on which they want the Committee's advice.

Quoracy

- 32. For a meeting to be quorate three of the six members must be present, of which one must be a Non-Executive Member.
- 33. If any member of the Committee has been disqualified from participating on an item in the agenda, by reason of a declaration of conflicts of interest, then that individual shall no longer count towards the quorum.
- 34. If the quorum has not been reached, then the meeting may proceed if those attending agree, but no decisions may be taken.

Voting

35. Decisions will be taken in accordance with the Standing Orders. The Committee will ordinarily reach conclusions by consensus. When this is not possible, the Chair may call a vote. Only members of the Committee may vote. Each member is allowed one vote and a simple majority will be conclusive on any matter. Where there is a split vote, with no clear majority, the Chair of the Committee will hold the casting vote. The result of the vote will be recorded in the minutes.

Papers and notice

36. A minimum of seven clear working days' notice is required of the date and time of a meeting. Notice of all meetings will comprise venue, time and date of the meeting, together with an agenda of items to be discussed. Supporting papers must be distributed no less than five clear working days ahead of the meeting.
37. On occasion it may be necessary to arrange urgent meetings at shorter notice. In these circumstances the Chair will give as much notice as possible to members. Urgent papers will be permitted in exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the Chair.

Virtual attendance

38. It is for the Chair to decide whether or not the Committee will meet virtually by means of telephone, video or other electronic means. Where a meeting is not held virtually, the Chair may nevertheless agree that individual members may attend virtually. Participation in a meeting in this manner shall be deemed to constitute presence in person at such meeting. How a person has attended a meeting shall be specified in the meeting minutes.

Recordings of meetings and publication

39. Except with the permission of the Chair, no person admitted to a meeting of the Committee will be permitted to record the proceedings in any manner whatsoever, other than in writing;
